

Fly Away

Lyrics by Jonathan Patton

Come away
Make a journey
Slip away through this crowd

Everyday
We long for freedom
Find the place where
We are found

I will never live like I am
Only a little more than nothing
I will never rest in this cage
I'm breaking out of here

To truly live
Is it worth fighting?
Even more
Is it worth dying?

Fear of loss
We've hid ourselves
Time to stand
Embrace the dawn

I will never live like I am
Only a little more than nothing
I will never rest in this cage
I'm breaking out of here

All I need is just a glimpse of You
All my chains I'll leave behind
And to everyone who says I can't
Watch me spread my wings and fly

Fly away...

I will never live like I am
Only a little more than nothing
I will never rest in this cage
I'm breaking out...
