

Run the Blade

Lyrics co-written by Jonathan Patton and Caz Flame (Christopher Downing)

Yeah, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will fear no evil
Yeah, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will fear no man

Father I

Can't deny flesh is evil, open eyes and minds so we can truly see You

All the lies

No surprise, I couldn't feel You I was hypnotized

Disguised, how could I believe You?

See I was evil

Tried to play God in the eyes of people, I was lethal

But I couldn't carry every sin thinking I was equal

Got on my face and You showed me grace, carried me to a place to destroy those who deceive
You

I'm running up in a cave, a slave for the One who saves

Looking at these demons like dragons the Lord will come and slay

Enter the darkest cave with the faith that the prophets prayed

Enter like Simon then hah, Peter becomes my name

Put on my armor, my chest plate like a flame

Left hands a lamb, right hands lion fangs

I draw 'em in, like a sheep in a lion's cage

Pretend I'm asleep, they get creeped on like lion's prey

The taste of sweet victory like Elijah days

The bittersweet of defeat Jonah has to pray

Spit out the cave of a fish walk into a grave

Bring back my dog Lazarus now we ready for play

Yea we ready for war, Jesus I'm His contraction

Back in the womb of my Savior rebirth and back for action

I'm packed with satisfaction these demons are minor fractions

Just speak the word of GOD look! Their lungs start collapsing...

Ride on, Ride on

Run the blade all the way through them

Ride on, Ride on

So runs the blood of the enemy

Now that we coming closer to the grave

Galloping coming closer to the cave

Hearing the voices Father please help me don't let me slip insane becoming a slave, ha

Me and the forces getting lost in darkness, we gotta be brave

We gotta be out of our mind to walk in the spirit and challenge the cave

Now that I walk

Through the valley of shadow of death

Rip off my crucifix tattooing Jesus on my chest

And as the blood is running down I smear it on my breast
And take the rest, put some on my blade, who wants to test?
No time for rest we renegades hand grenades on our backs
Pull out the clips and watch our flesh melt right off our backs
Extend our righteous wings lead the light into the black
These Ill Angelic Kings lead the Jokers and the Jacks
Ready for combat
Carry the sword of Spades ready attack
The trumpet starts to bring a little emotion to the pack
We some wolves as we howl at the anthem, on the track
The full moon in black, yea we raise, up, like that...

Ride on, Ride on
Run the blade all the way through them
Ride on, Ride on
So runs the blood of the enemy

Cause I'm not afraid to fight, not afraid to die
When the ground runs red, when the blood is mine
And I'm not afraid to kill its time we ended this war
So when the ground runs red, the blood will be yours
Blood and sweat come streamin' down my face
Every last fear has been swallowed by my rage
Ride on I scream as I reach for my battle axe
A shadow blocks the sun and the sky turns black

Yeah, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will fear no evil
Yeah, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will fear no man

Ride on, Ride on
Run the blade all the way through them
Ride on, Ride on
So runs the blood of the enemy

Ride on, Ride on
Run the blade all the way through them
Ride on, Ride on
So runs the blood of the enemy
